Part 5—Termination of appointment

Residential sales of 1 or 2 properties only	Open listing: You may terminate in writing at any time. Sole or exclusive: The client and agent can agree in writing to end the appointment early. For appointments of 60 days or more, either party can end the appointment by giving 30 days written notice, but the appointment must run for at least 60 days unless both parties agree to an earlier end date.
Open listing	You may terminate an open listing for either commercial or residential property sales at any time.
Other fixed term appointments (excluding residential property sales)	The parties may agree to a fixed term appointment of their choice. This term may be ended earlier by mutual agreement.
Continuing appointments (for example: letting, collection of rents etc)	You may terminate in writing with 30 days notice, or less if both parties agree.

Part 6—PROPERTY SALES: open listing, sole agency or exclusive agency

To the client

You may appoint an agent to sell a property or land on the basis of an open listing, or a sole agency, or exclusive agency.

The following information explains the circumstances under which you will, and won't, have to pay a commission to the agent if the property is sold during their term of appointment.

☐ OPEN LISTING

- You appoint the agent to sell the property but you retain a right to appoint other agents on similar terms, without penalty or extra commission.
- No end date required.
- Appointment can be ended by either you or the agent at any time by giving written notice.

When you must pay the agent

- The agent is entitled to the agreed commission if the agent is the effective cause of sale.

When you don't have to pay the agent

- If the client sells the property privately and the agent is not the effective cause of sale i.e.: purchaser did not contact the agent, did not attend open house inspections etc.

☐ SOLE AGENCY

When you must pay the agent

- If you appoint a new agent during an existing agent's sole agreement term and the property is sold during that term, you may have to pay:
 - A commission to each agent (two commissions)
 - Damages for breach of contract arising under the existing agent's appointment

When you don't have to pay the agent

- If the client sells the property privately and the agent is not the effective cause of sale i.e.: purchaser did not contact the agent, did not attend open house inspections etc.

☐ EXCLUSIVE AGENCY

When you must pay the agent

- The client will pay the appointed agent whether this agent, any other agent, or person (including the client themselves) sells the property during the term of the appointment.
- If the client sells the property, after the exclusive appointment expires and if the agent was the effective cause of sale (introduced the buyer to the property) the agent may be entitled to commission.

At the end of the sole or exclusive agency, the parties ☐ Agree ☐ Do not agree that the appointment will continue as an open listing. (Please tick whichever is relevant)

Acknowledgement for sole and exclusive agency

I/we acknowledge the appointed agent has provided me/us with information about sole and exclusive agency appointments.

Part 9—Signatures

WARNING: THE CLIENT IS ADVISED TO SEEK INDEPENDENT LEGAL ADVICE BEFORE SIGNING THIS FORM.

This form enables the client to appoint, or reappoint, a property agent, resident letting agent or property auctioneer (the 'agent') for the sale, letting/management, collection of rent, auction or purchase of real property, land or businesses. This form must be completed and given to the client before the agent performs any service for the client. Failure to do so may result in a penalty and loss of commission for the agent. If you are unclear about any aspect of this form, or the fees you will be charged, do not sign it. Seek legal advice. If you need more information about this form including what an agent needs to disclose, you can visit the Office of Fair Trading website at www.qld.gov.au/fairtrading or phone on 13 QGOV (13 74 68).

If this Appointment is an Open Appointment (Item W):

- (1) during the term of this Appointment the Client will be responsible for Commission and/or Fees to the Agent as outlined in this Appointment, for all services provided by the Agent in respect of this Appointment.
- (2) where a letting commission is applicable and the Agent, during the term of this Appointment is the effective cause of the Property being let, regardless of whether the Appointment has expired, the Agent will still be entitled to the letting commission.
- (3) if the Client or another properly appointed agent lets the Property and the Agent is not the effective cause of the Property being let no commission with respect to letting will be payable.

4. Reappointment

- 4.1 Where the Appointment is not a continuing appointment (refer Part 4.2 of the attached Property Occupations Form 6), then subject to Clause 4.2 the Client may reappoint the Agent, in the approved form, for a further period under the same terms and conditions by completing Part 10 (Reappointment) of their copy of this Appointment and providing it to the Agent.
- 4.2 The Client must provide the Reappointment to the Agent not more than 14 days prior to the expiry of this Appointment.
- 4.3 Where the Client has reappointed the Agent in the approved form, the Parties agree that the Agent has the right to end or revoke the Reappointment by giving written notice to the Client within 7 days after receiving the Reappointment.
- 4.4 Where the Agent ends or revokes the Reappointment the Appointment will end:
 - (1) where this Appointment has not ended, in accordance with the terms and conditions of the Appointment; and

- (2) where this Appointment has ended and the Reappointment commenced, on service of the written notice required in accordance with Clause 4.3.

- 4.5 Where the Agent does not serve a notice in accordance with Clause 4.3 this will be confirmation of the Agent's acceptance of Reappointment.

5. General Tenancy Agreement

The Client will be in breach of this Appointment should the Client fail to observe the provisions of any General Tenancy or other agreement entered into during the term of this Appointment under the RTRA. In the case of a breach which results in termination of the General Tenancy Agreement the Client must pay to the Agent:

- (1) all Commission and Fees then due and owing to the Agent.
- (2) the Commission and Fees payable in respect of any balance of the term (not to exceed six months), of such General Tenancy Agreement subject to the Agent taking reasonable steps to mitigate any loss.

6. Commission

- 6.1 The Client will pay all Commission as more particularly detailed in Part 7 of the attached Property Occupations Form 6 and Item B.

- 6.2 The Client authorises the Agent to deduct all Commission, where possible, from rent collected.

7. Fees, Charges and Expenses

- 7.1 The Client will pay all Fees, Charges, Expenses and other outlays owing to or incurred by the Agent in association with this Appointment, as detailed in Part 8 of the attached Property Occupations Form 6 or as outlined in Items D and E.

- 7.2 The Client authorises the Agent to deduct all such Fees, Charges, Expenses and outlays, where possible, from rent collected.

8. Client's Obligations Regarding Tenancy (Refer to the Residential Tenancies and Rooming Accommodation Act 2008, Section 185 for obligations generally)

- 8.1 At the start of the tenancy, in accordance with Section 185(2) of the RTRA, the Client must ensure (at its own cost):
 - (a) are clean;
 - (b) are in good repair;
 - (c) are safe and fit for the Tenant/s to live in; and
 - (d) comply (where applicable) with the Prescribed Minimum Housing Standards (refer Sections 17A and 185(2)(e) (RTRA) and Schedule 5A of the RTA Regulation).
- (2) the Client is not in breach of a law dealing with issues about the health or safety of persons using or entering the premises.
- 8.2 In addition to the Section 185(2) requirements under Clause 8.1, at the start of the tenancy, the Client must also ensure (at its own cost):
 - (1) the Property and inclusions comply with the local and state authority building and emergency services legislation;
 - (2) all locks and security fittings are maintained and are in a reasonable state of repair;
 - (3) there is no Repair Order for the Property (Section 221 of the RTRA) that has not been:
 - (a) complied with; or
 - (b) disclosed to the Agent where not complied with, in which case, it will be listed on and may apply to the Tenancy Agreement until it has been remedied;
 - (4) that sufficient keys to the Property are provided to the Agent and Tenant/s for each lock, as provided in accordance with Section 210 of the RTRA;

- (5) compliance with the Fire and Emergency Services Act 1990 and Regulations thereto (installation and maintenance of smoke alarms see Item Q); and
- (6) where the Property contains a Regulated Pool (shared or non-shared), compliance with its obligations under Chapter 8 of the Building Act 1975 in respect to pool safety.
- 8.3 While the tenancy continues, the Client must, in accordance with Section 185(3) (at their own cost):
- (1) maintain the Property in such a way that it remains fit for the Tenant/s to live in;
 - (2) maintain the Property and inclusions in good repair,
 - (3) ensure any law dealing with issues about the health or safety of persons using or entering the premises is complied with;
 - (4) keep any common areas, if any, reasonably clean;
 - (5) ensure the Property and inclusions otherwise continue to comply with any applicable Prescribed Minimum Housing Standards.
- 8.4 In addition to the requirements under Clause 8.3, while the tenancy continues, the Client must also (at its own cost):
- (1) treat the Property as necessary by a licensed pest controller;
 - (2) where Item R(2) applies, ensure that a current Pool Safety Certificate is in effect prior to entering into, altering, extending or renewing a General Tenancy Agreement with Tenants for the Property; and
 - (3) comply with the applicable local and state authority building regulations.
- 8.5 The Client acknowledges it has sole responsibility to carry out the obligations under Clauses 8.1, 8.2, 8.3 and 8.4, and the Agent (unless expressly directed by the Client), will bear no responsibility for doing so.
- 8.6 The Client warrants it is the owner of the Property and has full authority to enter into all General Tenancy Agreements.
- 8.7 All dealings with a Tenant regarding the tenancy are to be communicated and dealt with through the Agent.
- 9. Property Sale of Transfer
- In the event of the Property being transferred by the Client:
- (1) the Client will forthwith inform the Agent in writing of the Real Estate Agent appointed to sell the Property.
 - (2) the Client will promptly notify the Agent of the signing of a contract and of the Client's intention to terminate the Appointment giving the Agent not less than thirty days notice.
- 10. Client Obligations and Authority
- 10.1 The Client has, at the time of entering into this Appointment, provided the Agent with accurate information, and has disclosed to the Agent all relevant facts about the Property and has not provided information that is or is likely to be false, misleading or deceptive.
- Note: Section 312A of the RTRA provides a Tenant may, within the first three months of a tenancy, apply to QCAT for a termination order, if they have received false or misleading information about:
- (a) the condition of the premises or inclusions; or
 - (b) the services provided for the premises; or
 - (c) a matter relating to the premises that is likely to affect the Tenant's quiet enjoyment of the premises; or
 - (d) the agreement or any other document the lessor must give the Tenant under this Act; or
 - (e) the rights and obligations of the Tenant or lessor under the RTRA.
- 10.2 The Client will at all times during the currency of this Appointment keep the Agent advised of and disclose to the Agent in writing all relevant and material facts and changes thereto about the Property.
- 10.3 The Client does not rely on the Agent to determine the financial or credit suitability of any prospective tenant beyond the details set out or obtained in accordance with the Application for Tenancy used by the Agent.
- 10.4 The Client acknowledges once a General Tenancy Agreement has been entered into by the Client and Tenant the Agent is limited to its Obligations under this Appointment.
- 10.5 The Client authorises and directs the Agent to let, re-let (as necessary) and manage such letting of the Property at a Rent and for a term authorised by the Client or failing such authorisation for a fair and reasonable Rent as determined by the Agent, unless otherwise instructed by the Client in Item K.
- 10.6 The Client must obtain and maintain the insurance policies listed, "to pay" in Item E, and the Client must upon request, provide certificates annually for each insurance policy confirming the currency of such policies.
- 10.7 The Client must have public liability insurance (Item U) and be covered for a minimum of 10 million dollars, in addition to any insurance provided by a body corporate for common areas. Such policy must be maintained for the term of this Appointment and the Client must upon request provide a certificate annually confirming the currency of such policy.
- 10.8 Notwithstanding the Agent's responsibility to refer suitable Tenant's based on the Agent's standard Application for Tenancy, final approval shall at all times be the responsibility of the Client as Landlord.
- 10.9 The Client must comply with the requirements of this Appointment, all Applicable Legislation, and any General Tenancy Agreement arising from this Appointment.
- 10.10 Where a product, fixture or fitting provided with the Property has a warning label or safety instructions attached the Client is not to deface, damage or remove such label.
- 10.11 Where the Client directs the Agent to issue the Tenant with a Notice to Leave due to:
- (1) the Premises being sold;
 - (2) the use of the Premises changing; or
 - (3) the Client (or their family) resuming occupation of the Premises,
- the Client must provide accurate information to the Agent and advise the Agent promptly should circumstances in relation to the Notice to Leave change.
- 10.12 The Client will, upon request, provide details of all service / maintenance contracts (Item M).
- 10.13 The Client must ensure any Nominated Repairer (Item N) is appropriately qualified, and licenced and holds suitable public liability and (where applicable) professional indemnity insurance policies.
- 10.14 Where a Nominated Repairer is unable to carry out or complete a repair due to not being suitably qualified, licenced or insured, the Client authorises the Agent to source a suitable alternative repairer at the Clients cost.
- 10.15 the Client is to inform the Agent promptly of any change with respect to their Nominated Repairer.
- 10.16 the Client is to inform the Agent of any Repair Orders (Section 221 of the RTRA) relating to the Premises.
- 10.17 The Client must inform the Agent if, within 6 months of entering into this Appointment, the Client served a previous Tenant with a Form 12 'Notice to Leave', on any of the following grounds:
- (1) Sale contract (Section 286 RTRA);
 - (2) Change of use of property (Section 290E RTRA); or
 - (3) Owner occupation (Section 290G RTRA).
- Note: If a residential tenancy ends because the lessor gives the Tenant a notice to leave for sale contract (RTRA Section 365B(1)), change of use of property (RTRA Section 365C(1)), or owner occupation (RTRA Section 365D(1)), the lessor must not offer a residential tenancy for the premises for 6 months after the handover day.

- 10.18 the Client will promptly inform the Agent of any change to the Client's contact or bank details.
- 11. Agent's Obligations and Authority
- 11.1 Except as otherwise authorised by the Client, the Agent will be responsible for locating and introducing to the Client suitable prospective tenants in accordance with the criteria detailed in the Agent's Application for Tenancy so as to enable the Client to make an informed decision as to the suitability of the prospective tenants.
- 11.2 The Agent must where required or necessary (including, where directed by the Client, to ensure the Property continues to comply with the Prescribed Minimum Housing Standards) organise routine repairs, service and maintenance (utilising, where appropriate, a licensed tradesperson) and where possible utilise those services of the persons detailed in Items M or N (as applicable).
- 11.3 The Agent will seek the Client's written approval before ordering routine repairs (repairs that are not emergency repairs) or maintenance in excess of the authorised amount specified in Part 8.2 of the attached Property Occupations Form 6 or any amount otherwise specified by the Client in writing.
- 11.4 Where the Agent is authorised and expressly directed to carry out the Client's duties in respect of matters detailed in Clause 8.1, 8.2, 8.3 and 8.4 the Agent is authorised and reserves the right to employ the services of a suitably licensed tradesperson to carry out such requirements and bill the cost thereof, including any superannuation guarantees, if applicable, relating to such services, to the Client.
- 11.5 When appointing tradespersons the Agent must exercise proper due diligence and in so doing, except in the case of negligence on the part of the Agent, will not be liable for loss or damage caused by or resultant upon the tradespersons carrying out works.
- 11.6 (1) The Agent may arrange for an authorised or other suitably qualified person to carry out emergency repairs (as defined in Section 214 of the RTRA) or maintenance up to the value nominated in Item E 3 (6).
- (2) If the Agent acts under Clause 11.6(1) and pays for the emergency repairs, the agent is authorised to make deductions from payments of rent, up to the cost of the repairs, before disbursement of the payments to the Lessor's account, provided the Agent must inform the Lessor of the action as soon as practicable after making the deduction.
- 11.7 The Agent will take reasonable steps to ensure goods or services obtained for the Client are at competitive prices.
- 11.8 The Agent will not induce or attempt to induce, a breach of, or an interference with, a Contract between the Client and a tenant.
- 11.9 The Agent will maintain its Licence in accordance with the Act.
- 11.10 The Agent will advise the Client upon the termination of any General Tenancy Agreement and/or vacancy of the Property.
- 11.11 The Agent will, subject to the RTRA and other Applicable Legislation, negotiate, finalise and where necessary, execute on behalf of the Client any General Tenancy Agreement or any amendments or variations thereto, including any other documents in relation to the tenancy arising from this Appointment.
- 11.12 The Agent is to collect and receive all monies payable (rent, bond and otherwise) under any General Tenancy Agreement entered into pursuant to this Appointment.
- 11.13 The Agent must account in writing to the Client with respect to Clause 11.12 and those monies paid or used by the Agent carrying out the Agent's Obligations under this Appointment.
- 11.14 The Agent will make all payments required under and in accordance with this Appointment and which the Agent may have an obligation to make as the Client's Agent.
- 11.15 The Agent is authorised to apply to the Residential Tenancy Authority for payment of the Tenant's bond to recover all monies including unpaid rent under the General Tenancy Agreement relevant to the Property.
- 11.16 The Agent will promptly respond to and, subject to the Client's written instructions, attend to all reasonable requests by the Client for service, maintenance of, and repairs to, the Property.
- 11.17 The Agent will not engage a person to perform Building Work unless the person holds a licence under the Queensland Building and Construction Commission Act 1991 authorising the performance of the work.
- 11.18 The Agent must immediately notify the Client in writing if the Agent becomes aware of a tenant's breach, which is in the Agent's opinion a fundamental breach of the General Tenancy Agreement.
- 11.19 In relation to expressions of interest the Agent will keep the Client advised of enquiries regarding the re-letting and letting of the Property.
- 11.20 The Agent is authorised to, and in so doing may, on obtaining written instruction from the Client, use independent legal services, to:
- (1) take legal action in respect of a breach of the General Tenancy Agreement; and/or
 - (2) recover monies due and unpaid by a Tenant subject to the General Tenancy Agreement.
- 11.21 Where 'Yes' is selected in Item Y, in accordance with Section 206 of the RTRA, the Agent is authorised to represent and/or appear on behalf of the Client, in matters before the Tribunal.
- 11.22 When dealing with prospective tenants the Agent is not precluded from ascertaining the Tenant's suitability (financial or otherwise) to rent the Property.
- 11.23 The Agent must act in accordance with the Client's instructions unless such instructions are contrary to the Conduct Standards prescribed in the Regulations to the Act.
- 12. Property Inspection
- 12.1 The Client will comply with all obligations with respect to Condition Reports and inspections required by the RTRA or the General Tenancy Agreement, and authorises the Agent to inspect the Premises and prepare, sign and provide to the Tenant, such reports, on behalf of the Client.
- 12.2 The Agent is required to complete an Inventory and/or inspection report of the Property if specified in Item G and J.
- 12.3 The Agent will notify the Client in writing of any serious tenant's complaint or defect to the Property (subject to the limitations set out in Clause 15.2) creating a possible liability.
- 12.4 The Client will be responsible for rectification of matters notified under Clause 12.3.
- 13. Body Corporate
- 13.1 Should the Property be subject to Body Corporate and Community Management Legislation, the Agent is authorised and directed to deal in all matters relevant to this Appointment and any General Tenancy Agreement entered into under the authority of this Appointment with the relevant Body Corporate.
- 13.2 The Client will provide to the Agent, or alternatively the Agent is authorised to obtain from the Body Corporate, a copy of current by-laws. A copy of such by-laws are to be provided to all Tenants by the Agent upon occupying the Property.
- 13.3 The Client must instruct the Body Corporate to provide the Agent with revised by-laws when and if such by-laws are amended, and otherwise facilitate the Agent's compliance with its obligations under this Appointment.

14. Work Health and Safety

Insofar as either party to this Appointment is, with respect to the Premises a - Person Conducting a Business or Undertaking (under the Work Health and Safety Act 2011, Regulations or relevant Codes of Practice in relation thereto) such party must comply with Applicable Legislation, Regulations or relevant Codes of Practice. Provided however, in carrying out such obligations the Agent acts only as Agent for the Client.

15. Indemnity

15.1 The Agent having complied with its obligations under this Appointment and not having been negligent, the Client indemnifies the Agent, its officers and employees, from and against all actions, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses arising out of or in respect of this Appointment from;

- (1) the Client's failure to comply with this Appointment, any General Tenancy Agreement entered into under the authority of this Appointment, and/or Applicable Legislation; or
- (2) the Client's failure to give the Agent prompt and appropriate authority or instruction, or sufficient funds to carry out an instruction or authority; or
- (3) the Tenant's failure to comply with his/her obligations according to the General Tenancy Agreement, at no fault of the Agent; or
- (4) the Tenant's failure to comply with his/her obligations under the RTRA and or other Applicable Legislation; or
- (5) the Agent acting on behalf of the Client under this Appointment; or
- (6) any loss arising from injury to person or damage to property howsoever caused (except in the case of negligence on the part of the Agent); or
- (7) the Client's failure to disclose required information relevant to this Appointment; or
- (8) a warning label or safety instructions having been removed, damaged or defaced where a product or fitting has been supplied to the Property with such a label or instruction attached.
- (9) any decision the Client may make with respect to a request to keep a pet on the Premises.

15.2 The Client acknowledges that the Agent is acting only as a licensed letting and/or managing agent and is not responsible for reporting any matters (including defects latent or otherwise) other than those that are readily apparent during the course of standard periodic inspections (see Clause 12) or as brought to their attention as letting agent by the Tenant.

The Agent is not otherwise qualified and it is the Client's responsibility to obtain specific advice with respect to the Property and its soundness as to building and structural integrity, pest, health, fire and pool safety and other requirements. As such, the Client indemnifies the Agent from and against all actions, claims, demands, losses, costs, damages and expenses arising out of, or in respect of this Appointment, resulting from matters of cleanliness, safety, construction, building requirements or building deterioration, notwithstanding the Agent's obligations under Clause 12.

16. Electrical Safety Switch

If an Electrical Safety Switch is not installed on the Property, the Client must install an approved Electrical Safety Switch. (See Section 81 of the Electrical Safety Regulation 2013)

17. Termination

17.1 Either party may terminate this Appointment by giving notice in accordance with Part 5 of the attached Property Occupations Form 6 for the time specified therein (See Sections 106 and 114 of the Act).

17.2 In the event of the Client committing to sell or transfer the Property the Client will terminate this Appointment in accordance with Clause 9 of this Appointment.

17.3 Any Termination shall be without prejudice to either party's rights under this Appointment.

17.4 Upon Termination of this Appointment the Client must pay, within the time period specified in Part 5 of the attached Property Occupations Form 6, to the Agent all Fees and Commission then due and owing to the Agent.

18. Conjunctional Letting

The Agent may, during the term of the Appointment, to better facilitate the provisions of the Appointment, utilise the services of another agent in which case there may be sharing of the Commission.

19. Execution and Confirmations

19.1 By signing this Appointment, the parties acknowledge:

- (1) having received a copy of this Appointment for perusal prior to signing;
- (2) being provided with the opportunity to obtain independent legal advice; and
- (3) agree they are bound by the terms of this Appointment.
- (4) this Appointment constitutes the whole agreement between them, and each parties contractual obligations are limited to those set out herein.

19.2 The Agent must provide the Client with a signed copy of this Appointment, after signing by all parties, in accordance with the Act.

20. Special Conditions

20.1 Any Special Conditions to this Appointment shall form part of this Appointment. Should there be inconsistency between these Terms of Appointment and a Special Condition, the Special Condition will apply. All Special Conditions must be in compliance with all relevant legislation.

20.2 Special Conditions to this Appointment where inserted at the direction of the Client were prepared by the Client or an Australian Legal Practitioner instructed by the Client and not by the Agent. No warranty is given by the Agent with respect to such clauses. Legal advice should be sought.

21. Privacy

21.1 The Agent must comply with the provisions of the Australian Privacy Principles (Privacy Act 1988 (CTH)) and where required maintain a Privacy Policy.

21.2 The Privacy Policy outlines how the Agent collects and uses Personal Information provided by you as the Client, or obtained by other means, to provide the services required by you or on your behalf.

21.3 You as Client agree the Agent may, subject to the Privacy Act 1988 (CTH) (where applicable), collect, use and disclose such information to:

- (1) tenants and potential tenants, insofar as such information is relevant to the managing and/or leasing of the Property; and/or
- (2) Body Corporates and financial institutions; and/or
- (3) tradespeople and similar contractors in order to facilitate the carrying out of works with respect to the Property; and/or
- (4) other third parties as may be required by the Agent for the purposes of marketing, sales promotion and administration relating to the use of the Agent's products and services, but must do so in compliance with legislative and regulatory requirements.

21.4 Without provision of certain information the Agent may not be able to act effectively or at all on the Client's behalf.

21.5 The Client has the right to access such Personal Information and may require correction or amendment of any inaccurate, incomplete, out of date or irrelevant information.

21.6 The Agent will provide (where applicable), on request, a copy of its Privacy Policy.

22. Data Collection

Upon signing this Appointment the parties agree the Agent, and the form completion service provider providing this form, may without disclosing Personal Information collect, use and disclose to Data Collection Agencies information contained in this Appointment and any subsequent tenancy agreement.

23. Related Documents / Notices / Electronic Communication

23.1 The parties agree and confirm this Appointment, and any documents and communications in relation to, and authorised by, this Appointment, may be forwarded electronically and where a document has been forwarded electronically (either for signing or otherwise) the party receiving such document confirms having consented to its delivery and execution electronically, before receiving the documentation.

23.2 A Related Document to be served on any party under this Appointment shall be in writing and may be served on that party:

- (1) by delivering it to the party personally; or
- (2) by leaving it for the party at that party's address as stated in this Appointment; or
- (3) by posting it to the party by ordinary mail or security mail as a letter addressed to the party at the address as stated in this Appointment; or
- (4) by electronic communication to the party at the appropriate electronic address as stated in this Appointment; or
- (5) by delivery to an alternative address, provided in writing by the party, by any of the methods outlined in Clauses 23.2(1) to (4) above.

23.3 A document posted shall be deemed to have been served, unless the contrary is shown, at the time when, by the ordinary course of post, the document would be delivered.

23.4 A document sent by electronic communication will be deemed to have been received in accordance with Section 24 of the Electronic Transactions (Queensland) Act 2001.

23.5 Documents given by a party's solicitor will be deemed to have been given by and with the authority of the party.

23.6 Documents must be served before 5pm on a business day, failing which, such document will be deemed to have been served on the next business day.

23.7 The parties acknowledge and agree an Electronic Document readily accessible via a link within a Related Document is received when the Related Document is served and will be opened when the Related Document is opened.

23.8 Where applicable, the parties also agree to execution, delivery and service of documents electronically by a method provided by an agreed electronic signature service provider.

24. Using this Form

Where information is required to be entered on the approved form, information contained in any attached annexures or schedules referred to in the approved form, including the Item Schedule and the Terms of Appointment, shall apply to the approved Property Occupations Form 6.
